Printmaking - Drypoint: Direct Intaglio

Age 16 yrs. and up.

Drypoint is a non-acid intaglio technique where marks are made directly on plates, inked and then printed on an etching press. The mark of a drypoint can be identified by a characteristically rich and velvety line. In this course we'll prepare copper plates, explore a variety of tools and techniques as well as cover proper inking and printing procedures. A great printmaking technique for artists of all levels and backgrounds. A supply fee of $20 - $30 for plates and paper will be due at the first class meeting.
